The More We Change - The More We Stay The Same

I'm Ethan, a Technical Artist currently living south of Chicago in the USA. What's a Technical Artist? The definition varies slightly depending on your focus, however in my previous career in computer graphics (2000-Current) it's loosely defined as an individual who "speaks all the languages" and has mastered no less than three separate disciplines within the same sector. Over twenty-years experience in the field of computer graphics has granted me the ability to perform any and all roles associated with digital content creation, be it games, film, or somewhere in between. Additionally, I grew up on a working farm in the midwest and very much enjoy "getting my hands dirty" as reflected by my chosen "side hustles" in Woodworking and Blacksmithing.

My Three Current Occupations (as of June 2024):

- 1) "Stained Glass Llama LLC" Writing, animating and producing a sci-fi episodic show intended for a fall 2024 release entitled "Divergence: Moonfall."
- 2) "The Woodist LLC" Woodworking and Carpentry
- 3) "Ethan Casner Co." Freelance Cinematography
